Youth Evaluation & Treatment Centers is Proud to Participate in Arizona Gives Day, April 7, 2015

Youth Evaluation & Treatment Centers is one of the nearly 1,000 nonprofit organizations expected to participate in Arizona Gives Day, an online fundraising initiative, scheduled to take place on Tuesday, April 7, 2015. Presented by FirstBank, Arizona Gives Day will bring together Arizonans from across the state to raise awareness and financial support for a variety of nonprofit organizations. Arizonans are encouraged to help make a difference by investing in the nonprofit of their choice.

“We are thrilled to be part of Arizona Gives this year! It’s a great opportunity to not only bring more awareness to mental health but to also raise additional funds to enhance our services for our youth,” said staff member Lori Sorensen, Community Development Coordinator.

“The inaugural event in 2013 was a big success and proved the commitment Arizonans have in supporting our nonprofits throughout the state. We are excited to for the 2015 Arizona Gives Day and to further showcase the important work our nonprofits are doing in our communities,” said Patrick McWhortor, president and CEO of the Alliance of Arizona Nonprofits.

From midnight on April 7 and continuing until 11:59 p.m., supporters of Youth Evaluation and Treatment Centers can go online to www.Azgives.org and select Youth Evaluation and Treatment Centers to receive your charitable contribution. All online donations during this day will go directly to support/help children and families of our community.
